Acupuncture is a form of alternative medicine in which thin needles are inserted into the body. It is a key component of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM). Traditional acupuncture involves needle insertion, moxibustion, and cupping therapy. Acupuncture and moxibustion are more integrated in the Chinese healthcare system than in the national healthcare systems of other countries. This is a well-arranged medical tele-consultation program developed by a private team of Chinese experts from the top TCM research center, China Academy of Traditional Chinese Medicine.
